Live life among the gumtrees with this sublime bushland retreat. Located close to town, you can enjoy an abundance of space and privacy without sacrificing convenience and comfort, perfect for those looking for their dream family home.

The layout is spacious and light-filled with an open-plan design ready for the busyness of everyday life. Gorgeous blackbutt timber floors flow from the entrance hall into the sunken lounge set under a timber-lined cathedral ceiling. Walls of windows frame the beautiful vista and there are skylights to ensure plenty of natural light fills the room. For the avid entertainer, a theatre system, a remote controlled screen and surround sound promise the ultimate movie experience.

No matter the weather, you can step out to the covered
