Neat as a pin with a white picket fence and ensconced by native bushland, Flame Tree Cottage is simply gorgeous. Escape the hustle and bustle and settle down amongst nature in one of the more unique properties located in the Scenic Rim town of Kooralbyn. The home was relocated to the valley four years ago when new steel stumps were used to anchor this home amongst all the stunning views and natural landscape that Kooralbyn has to offer.

This three-bedroom, one-bathroom home is filled to the brim with elegant fixtures and finishings, including casement windows, ornate cornices, and rich timber flooring throughout. These features have all been preserved from the original home, adding that extra touch of vintage charm.

Ceiling fans and air conditioning in all bedrooms and the main living areas will ensure year-round comfort, and the kitchen features Caesar stone benchtops, induction
